

An apprenticeship is a pathway to a future in the trades. These websites provide you with information on how to qualify, how to find an employer to hire you as well as how to help pay for the required training and tools. These sites provide much more information, including a list of all skilled trades in Ontario.

<https://www.ontario.ca/page/apprenticeship-ontario>

<https://www.ontariocolleges.ca/en/apply/skilled-trades/earn>

<https://www.ontario.ca/page/skilled-trades>

If you are interested in pursuing a career in the trades, we strongly suggest that you take co-op in high school. Co-op is a 2-credit course where a student works in a company to gain knowledge, skills and hands-on experience in a field of interest.